As only a certain contingent is available, there is a possibility that late enquiries can no longer be considered for the same conditions. Each booking must be made via the booking form and sent by e-mail, after which the confirmations will be sent. Only after receipt of the confirmation the total amount must be transferred to the corresponding account within 10 days.

We endeavor to offer the best conditions for all participants and still negotiate with various other hotels and will publish further offers if possible.
