² Frequency of World Taekwondo Beach Championships will be decided by the WT.

iii) Every year: World Taekwondo Grand-Prix Series³, World Taekwondo Grand-Prix Final and Gala Awards, World Taekwondo World Cup Team Championships

1.2. The title of the WT Events shall be decided by the WT.

1.3. Competition days and the number of courts for each WT Events are prescribed in the Operational Manual of pertinent event.

2. All rights in and to the WT Events, including but not limited to commercial rights, marketing rights and all intellectual property rights of the WT designation, the WT logos and the designation of the WT Events, are the sole properties of the WT. All rights are reserved and protected.
3. Every WT Event is organized by a Local Organizing Committee. The Local Organizing Committee is an entity, which is organized after a bidder is selected as the host of the WT Event among the bidders who have submitted the Bid File together with relevant attachments.

4. Bid process to host WT Events

4.1. The WT shall inform bidders of the WT Events open to bid and the relevant bidding process when it starts a process of host city selection. Any matters pertaining to the bid and host city selection process will be dealt with in accordance with the bid manual of the relevant bid process.

4.2. Bidders such as WT-affiliated Member National Association (hereinafter referred to as "WT MNA") or city or combined of the two wishing to host WT Events must express the official intent to host the WT Event(s) following the directions and timeline which are prescribed in the bid manual of the pertinent bid process.

4.3. A bidder who has declared the official intent shall complete the bid application by submitting a set of documents with relevant attachments, which contains bidding conditions, to the WT. The set of documents with relevant attachments shall be prepared and submitted to the WT in accordance with the timeline and directions which are prescribed in the bid manual of the pertinent bid process.

4.4. The WT may form an evaluation panel in order to screen and assess bidding conditions suggested in the submitted documents with relevant attachments by each bidder. The evaluation panel may submit a report which contains the results of evaluation to the WT Council.

4.5. The WT may carry out a site inspection to each bidding city in accordance with the timeline set out in the bid manual of the pertinent bid process. Bidders shall cover round-trip visit, the debriefing of the previous edition of the WT Event shall be held.

- 5.5. WT shall draft an outline of the WT Event in consultation with the Local Organizing Committee and shall send out to the WT MNAs by no later than twelve (12) months before the first day of the scheduled event.
- 5.6. WT shall inform a Local Organizing Committee of the required number of technical officials to be appointed by the WT for the event by no later than six (6) months before the first day of the scheduled event and shall provide the list of technical officials by no later than two (2) months before the first day of the event.
- 5.7. The WT reserves title sponsorship but the revenue shall be shared by 50:50 between the WT and the Local Organizing Committee in case the Local Organizing Committee arranges the title sponsorship, in case of which the LOC shall consult with the WT. The Operational Manual for each WT Event has priority over these Rules regarding any marketing income.
- 5.8. WT shall carry out event impact studies to be shared with the Local Organizing Committee after completion of the event.

6. Local Organizing Committee (LOC)

- 6.1. The President of the Organizing Member National Association shall take all responsibilities and shall fulfill the following requirements within three (3) months after selected as the host. In case of failure, the WT can deprive the host of the hosting right without prior consultation.
 - i) Constitution and opening of LOC
 - ii) Payment in full of the hosting fee
- 6.2. The LOC shall engage faithfully in the set of programs provided by the WT to assist hosts of WT events in organization and operation of the event in accordance with the timeline and directions specified in the Operational Manual for each WT Event.
- 6.3. The LOC shall attend the orientation seminar, at its own expense, held in conjunction with observation training which is carried out at the previous edition of the event. The LOC shall submit the first operational plan to the WT in conformity with the directions and timeline which are prescribed in the Operational Manual for each WT Event.
- 6.4. The LOC shall cover round-trip airfare, accommodation and board for maximum two (2) WT delegates for each site visit. The LOC shall also prepare for the debriefing of the previous edition of the event, which is held in conjunction with the first site visit, including but not limited to the venue rental in consultation with the WT. The Operational Manual for each WT Event has priority over these Rules regarding the site visit and the debriefing
- 6.5. The LOC shall draft overall matters of the event in detail under the guidance of the WT and shall send out the invitation letter with the associated package under the name of the President of the LOC by no later than six (6) months before the first day of the Competition. The invitation letter shall begin with “In accordance with the instruction of the World Taekwondo.....”, and following documents shall be enclosed with the invitation:

- i) Outline
- ii) Event Schedule
- iii) Arrival and departure forms with local transportation information
- iv) Information on official hotels including the distance from the competition venue and hotel reservation forms
- v) Detailed information on entry visa and application forms with an invitation letter of the LOC for participants’ visa issuance
- vi) Insurance
- vii) Other important matters including but not limited to city information and emergency contact

- 6.6. The LOC shall present the Progress Report to the WT Council at its meeting which is held in the preceding year of the event with the results from the first site visit reflected.
- 6.7. Entry registration shall begin four (4) months before the first day of competition. The deadline of entry shall be decided by the WT. The LOC shall be updated with the registration status by WT GMS team, while it is LOC’s responsibility to regularly update the WT the arrival and departure schedule as well as hotel information of the participating teams.
- 6.8. The LOC shall collect entry fees paid by the participating teams. The entry fees shall be divided between the WT and the LOC on a 50:50 basis. Amount of the entry fee shall be decided by the WT.
- 6.9. Domestic sponsorship program is LOC’s sole right. The WT and the LOC will take 50:50 portion of the space of logo exposure inside the venue including but not limited to LED Panels, A-boards, banners and backdrops. The LOC shall be granted sponsorship logo exposure on TV and live streaming in agreement with the WT. The Operational Manual for each WT Event has priority over these Rules regarding any marketing income.
- 6.10. The LOC shall ensure entry into the pertinent country of all delegations from the WT MNAs and invited guests according to the terms presented to the WT Council at the time when selected as the host of the event. The LOC shall coordinate with all governmental authorities of the pertinent country and embassies in order to facilitate the entry of participants.

- 6.11. The LOC shall submit the final operational plan by no later than three (3) months before the first day of competition dates with the results from the second site visit reflected. The final operational plan shall be reviewed and approved by the WT.
- 6.12. The LOC shall take all necessary and appropriate measures to ensure security for all participating national teams, invited guests as well as all other participants including spectators. The LOC shall also take necessary measures in order that any accidents or civil liabilities occurring during the period of the event might be covered by insurance following the details stated in the Host City Contract. However, the Organizing Member National Association shall take necessary procedures for any accidents or liabilities not directly related to the event.
- 6.13. The LOC shall organize Welcome Banquet, Opening Ceremony, Medal Ceremony and Closing Ceremony, and the schedule, place and invitees shall be decided in consultation with the WT.
- 6.14. The LOC shall designate at least 4-star or higher level hotel as WT headquarters hotel in which the WT officials, staff, guests and technical officials except International Referees shall be accommodated.
- 6.15. The LOC shall designate at least 4-star hotel as the International Referee hotel. The WT recommends that the LOC arranges the International Referee hotel located within walking distance from the competition venue. No national team officials shall stay in the same hotel as referees.
- 6.16. The LOC shall designate several official hotels with different prices so that participating teams could choose their hotels based on their budget. All official hotels shall be located near the venue with thirty (30) minutes at farthest by motor vehicles. The LOC shall use its best efforts to secure availability of rooms and to provide offers with competent prices. The WT highly recommends that the LOC arranges all official hotels located within walking distance from the competition venue.
- 6.17. The LOC shall provide free local transportation to athletes and officials of all teams, technical officials and guests staying in the official hotels between the airport, hotels and venues. In case of operation of shuttle buses, the timetable shall be posted at the Information Desk run by the LOC in the lobby of official hotels. Transportation guidelines for WT officials, staff, technical officials and VIPs are set out in the Operational Requirements and Operational Manual of each WT Event.
- 6.18. The LOC must ensure that medical doctors stand by at the competition venue so that any contestants, officials, invited guests and/or other participants including spectators may receive medical treatment including first aid at any time during the period of the event. The LOC shall also designate the official hospital at the nearest distance from the competition venue. The LOC shall also prepare an ambulance ready at hand to transport injured contestants or officials if they require an examination at hospitals or need to be hospitalized.

- 6.19. The LOC shall place a registration center at one of the official hotels, ideally headquarters hotel or the hotel where the most of teams are staying, in order to issue accreditation cards and provide information to the participants. Accreditation cards shall be issued in accordance with the guidelines set out in the Operational Manual. WT GMS team will be responsible for online entry registration in strict compliance with the WT regulations. The LOC shall provide GMS team with necessary arrangements for logistics and workforce with regard to the accreditation.
- 6.20. The LOC shall operate a training venue separately from the competition venue and assign specific training time for each team. The LOC shall provide free transportation to the teams to and from the training venue and shall prepare spare protective equipment at the training venue. The time of training venue operation shall be approved by the WT.
- 6.21. The LOC shall ensure the venue is prepared in accordance with the WT Competition Rules and other relevant rules and regulations of the WT. The LOC shall request the WT for approval of the status of venue preparations. The LOC shall also finalize overall matters regarding the venue operation plan with approval of the WT by no later than six (6) months before the first day of competition.
- 6.22. The LOC shall prepare all equipment to be used for the competition and training at its own expense as designated in the Operational Requirements and the Operational Manual. All the equipment must be WT-recognized ones, and the LOC shall obtain the approval for the required number of equipment and preparations from the WT in advance. The LOC shall put the color-printed "WT-recognized brand by product item" chart both in training area as well as inspection area.
- 6.23. The LOC shall make relevant preparations for drawing of lots, weigh-in and competition and results management and scoring system in close cooperation with On-Venue Result (OVR) and Instant Video Replay (IVR) companies.
- 6.24. The LOC shall provide WT technical officials, staff and any other persons specified in the WT Event Bid Manual with three (3) meals per day for free at the hotel or at the venue during the competition. The LOC shall secure appropriate restaurants or spaces for the meals for athletes and officials inside the venue.
- 6.25. The LOC shall provide beverage and snacks to WT officials, technical officials and VIPs at the designated places in the venue.
- 6.26. The LOC shall arrange official meetings and WT Gala Awards in accordance with the schedule and directions which are prescribed in the Operational Manual of the pertinent bid process.

- 6.27. The LOC shall prepare at its own expense the spaces and necessary equipment required for holding such official programs as WT General Assembly, WT Council Meeting, various Committee meetings, International Taekwondo Symposium, International Referee Seminar, International Coach Training Course, International Referees Meeting and Training, Head of Team Meeting & Drawing of Lots Session and Observation Training together with Orientation Seminar for the LOC of the next edition of the event. General Assembly and Council Meeting shall be recorded at the expense of the LOC. The conference room for General Assembly should be equipped with facilities for general election, if any, and for simultaneous interpretation in WT official languages at the expense of the LOC.
- 6.28. Technical Delegate of the event shall submit the separate TD Report to the WT Secretariat within two (2) weeks after the conclusion of the event.
- 6.29. The LOC shall submit the Final Report of the event with all official results, including but not limited to marketing results based on the format set by the WT, to the WT Secretariat within one (1) week after the conclusion of the event.
- 6.30. The LOC shall deliver a presentation at the debriefing which is held in the host city of the following edition of the event in order to share knowledge and experience obtained from hosting the event.
